

Indonesian Lineup of Broadcast Platforms providing WAKUWAKU JAPAN Channel of Japanese Programming for Overseas Broadcast Expanded – Broadcast on Four Pay TV Services to Start on Sunday, June 1 –

SKY Perfect JSAT Corporation (Head Office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director, President & Chief Executive Officer: Shinji Takada) will expand the lineup of broadcast platforms providing the WAKUWAKU JAPAN channel currently being broadcast in Indonesia. Broadcast on four pay TV services will start on Sunday, June 1.

WAKUWAKU JAPAN, launched in Indonesia on Saturday, February 22 of this year, provides a select range of Japanese programming in local languages 24 hours a day. The channel is broadcast on the INDOVISION and Okevision satellite broadcast services in Indonesia. Starting on Sunday, June 1, WAKUWAKU JAPAN will be broadcast on four pay TV services: BiGTV, First Media, Orange TV, and Transvision. SKY Perfect JSAT estimates that the number of potential viewer households will increase to approximately 2.5 million.

In conjunction with the expansion of viewable broadcast services, WAKUWAKU JAPAN will broadcast new commercials on JKT48, a channel supporter, and conduct promotions in Indonesia to increase awareness of the channels. SKY Perfect JSAT will also make efforts to enhance its programming in order to further increase local viewership.

SKY Perfect JSAT will continue to expand the lineup of its WAKUWAKU JAPAN channel of Japanese programming for overseas broadcast, and on Sunday, June 1 decided to begin broadcasts in Myanmar. SKY Perfect JSAT is currently making preparations to launch stations in a number of countries with a focus on Southeast Asia.

In addition to engaging in the domestic multi-channel pay TV business, SKY Perfect JSAT provides programming for other countries and is working to convey high-quality Japanese culture through broadcasting.
